ELIGIBILITY

The top five teams, comprised of two to three (2-3) members, from the winter regional conferences may enter this event. If a chapter has no winner in the top five, it may enter one team in this event. No more than one (1) team member may have won first place in this event at a previous State Business Leadership Conference or competed in this event at a prior NLC.

1. All participants must be members of the active local chapter on record in the FBLA state and national offices as paying dues by February 15.
2. Participants must be selected in accordance with the regulations of the local chapter and the state association.
3. Participants must not have won first place at a State Business Leadership Conference nor entered this event at a previous National Leadership Conference.
4. Participants failing to report on time for the event will not be permitted to compete.
5. Participants must adhere to the dress code established by the Board of Directors, or they will not be permitted to participate in the competitive event.

OVERVIEW

This event consists of two (2) parts: an objective test and a performance component.

A one (1) hour objective test will be administered based on the competencies listed. Team members will take one (1) objective test collaboratively. Nongraphing calculators may be used.

Every effort will be made to provide online computerized testing at the state level. If this is not possible, participants must furnish their own No. 2 pencils and erasers. No graphing calculators, cell phones, or other memory storage devices will be allowed.

The performance component is an interactive case study consisting of a problem or scenario encountered in the banking or financial business community.

GUIDELINES

1. The top fifteen (15) teams with the highest score on the objective test will participate in the performance at the . In the case of a tie, the objective test score will be used to break the tie.
2. Team members will report to the preparation room.
3. Twenty (20) minutes before the performance each participant will receive the case study. Participants arriving late will have time deducted from the twenty (20) minute preparation time.
4. Two (2) 4" x 6" note cards will be provided for each participant and may be used during the preparation and performance of the event. Information may be written on both sides of the note cards. Note cards will be collected following the presentation.
5. No reference materials, visual aids, or electronic devices may be brought to or used during the preparation or performance.
6. The team has seven (7) minutes to interact with a panel of judges and present the solution to the case. The judges will play the role of the second party in the presentation and refer to the case for specifics. This is a role-play event.
7. The team should introduce themselves, describe the situation, make their recommendations, and summarize their case. All team members are expected to actively participate in the performance.
8. A timekeeper will stand at six (6) minutes and again at seven (7) minutes. When the presentation is finished, the timekeeper will announce the time used.
9. The performance is open to conference attendees, who are not performing participants of this event.

JUDGING

The tests will be machine graded. Ties will be broken based on the last ten questions and in groups of ten thereafter if a tie still exists.

STATE AWARDS

The number of awards presented at the State Business Leadership Conference is determined by judges and/or number of entries. The maximum number will be five (5).

NATIONAL ENTRIES

Washington State may enter two (2) teams in national competition.
